NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

As required by the privacy regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). HopeAllianz Inc is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your individually identifiable health information (also called protected health information, or PHI). To comply with certain legal requirements, HopeAllianz Inc creates a record of the care and services each individual receives to better provide you with quality care.

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. HOPEALLIANZ INC'S PLEDGE REGARDING HEALTH INFORMATION:

HopeAllianz Inc understands that health information about you and your health care is personal. We are committed to protecting health information about you. We create a record of the care and services you receive from HopeAllianz Inc. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by this mental health care practice. This notice will tell you about the ways in which HopeAllianz Inc may use and disclose health information about you. We also describe your rights to the health information we keep about you, and describe certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of your health information. HopeAllianz Inc is required by law to:

- Make sure that protected health information (“PHI”) that identifies you is kept private. • Give you this notice of HopeAllianz Inc’s legal duties and privacy practices with respect to health information.
- Follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

- HopeAllianz Inc can change the terms of this Notice, and such changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new Notice will be available upon request, in HopeAllianz Inc’s office, and our website, www.hopeallianz.com.

II. HOW HOPEALLIANZ INC MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU:

The following categories describe different ways that HopeAllianz Inc may use and disclose health information. For each category of uses or disclosures we have explained what we mean and try to give some examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways HopeAllianz Inc is permitted to use and disclose information will fall within one of the categories.

For Treatment Payment, or Health Care Operations: Federal privacy rules (regulations) allow health care providers who have direct treatment relationship with the client to use or disclose the client’s personal health information without the patient’s written authorization, to carry out the health care provider’s own treatment, payment or health care operations. HopeAllianz Inc may also disclose your protected health information for the treatment activities of any health care provider. This too can be done without your written authorization. For example, if a clinician were to consult with another licensed health care provider about your condition, we would be permitted to use and disclose your personal health information, which is otherwise confidential, in order to assist the clinician in diagnosis and treatment of your mental health condition.

Disclosures for treatment purposes are not limited to the minimum necessary standard. Because therapists and other health care providers need access to the full record and/or full and complete information in order to provide quality care. The word “treatment” includes, among other things, the coordination and management of health care providers with a third party, consultations between health care providers and referrals of a client for health care from one health care provider to another.

Lawsuits and Disputes: If you are involved in a lawsuit, HopeAllianz Inc may disclose health information in response to a court or administrative order. HopeAllianz Inc may also disclose health information about your child in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

III. CERTAIN USES AND DISCLOSURES REQUIRE YOUR AUTHORIZATION:

Psychotherapy Notes. HopeAllianz Inc does keep “psychotherapy notes” as that term is defined as notes recorded (in any medium) by a mental health professional documenting or analyzing the contents of conversation during a private counseling session or a group, joint, or family counseling session and that are separated from the rest of the individual’s medical record, and any use or disclosure of such notes requires your Authorization unless the use or disclosure is: a. For HopeAllianz Inc's use in treating you. b. For HopeAllianz Inc's use in training or supervising mental health practitioners to help them improve their skills in group, joint, family, or individual counseling or therapy. c. For HopeAllianz Inc's use in defending our mental health practice in legal proceedings instituted by you. d. For use by the Secretary of Health and Human Services to investigate HopeAllianz Inc's compliance with HIPAA. e. Required by law and the use or disclosure is limited to the requirements of such law. f. Required by law for certain health oversight activities pertaining to the originator of the psychotherapy notes. g. Required by a coroner who is performing duties authorized by law. h. Required to help avert a serious threat to the health and safety of others.
